NUMB. 702

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4 1737.

11: 710.

Yesterday arrived the Mails due from Holland, France, and Flanders.

E begin with an Extract of a Letter from Constantinople, dated July 30, which gives some Discovery of that Ambassador's Commission, who is arrived there from Kouli Kan.

When the Porte had resolv'd to break the Peace with Russia, they plainly foresaw that their Rupture with the Emperor also would be unavoidable; and for Fear that they should not be able to support a War against both those Powers at once, they were determined to call for the Assistance of Thamas Kouli Kan. To engage him they try'd all Methods, and spar'd no Animations. They represented to him, That the formidable Union betwixt the Emperor and Russia might one Day or other prove to the Ruin of the Ottoman Empire; and that, in such a Case, the other Princes and States of Asia would have Reason to dread the Consequences. To these Arguments of so Publick a Concern, they added others, which they thought might be more persuasive, because they were calculated for his own particular Interest. They offered Kouli Kan to give him two or three Provinces, that bordered upon the Conquests which were yielded to him by the last Treaty of Peace. The only Thing to be adjusted, was what, perhaps, might have dash'd the whole Negotiation in Pieces; viz Some Articles that remain'd undetermined with regard to the Disputes between the Turks and Persians, touching the Rights of Omar and Ali: But the Porte not being scrupulous in those Matters as heretofore, granted the Persians all that they desired in those Respects. This Difficulty being removed, Thamas Kouli Kan considered the Importance of the Two other Articles abovementioned; and 'tis in Order to treat thereof that he has sent the Ambassador who now here. This Minister, since his Arrival, has had frequent Conferences with the Kaimacan; and we are assur'd, that every Thing relating to the new Cessions that are to be made to Persia, is almost entirely settled. 'Tis also reported, that Kouli Kan is to furnish the Porte with a Supply of 160,000 Men.

Vienna, Sept. 17. O. S. The Emperor has made a new Promotion of General Officers, of whom 6 are Vint Marbals, and 4 Major Generals. The Prussian Minister at this Court has given Notice to all the Prussian Officers and Subjects, who serve as Volunteers in the Army in Hungary, to return next Month to Berlin. The last Letters from Count Sackenroff left him incamp'd at Czaczack, near the Frontiers of Bosnia. He propos'd to form the Blockade of Zwornick before the Campaign is over. The Sackness continues in the Imperial Army: The Saxons too who were sent into Hungary, have suffered very much also by the Distempers that reign there, most of their Generals and Officers being attacked with it. The Prince of Bevern, in particular, is afflicted with it.

Florence, Sept. 9. O. S. The Council of the Republic here continues to make great Alterations in things that were established in the Time of the late Duke, so that a good Number of Pensions and Salaries which he granted, are revok'd and reduc'd, and several Persons abridg'd of the Right they claimed, of receiving their Letters free, which is a Privilege that will be only allow'd hereafter in Favour of the Mendicant Friars.

Frankfort, Sept. 25. O. S. It is still affirmed that one of the Protestant Powers are negotiating a Protestant League, for the Interests of their Religion, and for making farther Efforts for obtaining the Repeal of the Clause so often mentioned in the Article of the Treaty of Ryswick: 'Tis added, that this Alliance is to be Defensive, and that the Protestant Courts in the North, and in Germany, will be invited to accede to it.

Paris, Sept. 28. O. S. The Countess of Montijo arrived here from England the 24th, in her Way to Madrid. The Count de Lautrec set out Post Yesterday for Lions, from whence, 'tis said, he is to go to Geneva, to join with the Deputies of Zurich and Berne, in their Endeavours for pacifying the Troubles of that Republick. Letters from New Orleans in New France, of the 30th of May last, say, that they are making great Preparations there, for attacking the Savage Nation of the Chicachas.

Warsaw, Sept. 15. O. S. We have here the Copies of a Letter written by the Seraskier of Budziack, to the Seraskier of Oczakow (now a Prisoner in the Russian Army) and the said Prisoner's Answer. It appears by the former, that the Tartars of Budziack could not relieve Oczakow, not only by Reason of the Divisions among them, but because a good Number of their Countrymen were obliged to march to the Support of the Crim Tartars. The Seraskier of Budziack does not conclude his Letter, without quoting all the Passages out of the Alchoran which he thinks proper to comfort the Seraskier of Oczakow in those Bonds. And the Prisoner, in his Answer, desires his Brother of Budziack to use his Credit at the Porte, that they may procure him his Liberty.

To the KING's most Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's very faithful and loyal City of Dublin, is too much Interested in the Prosperity of your most August House, to be Silent on so happy an Event, as her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales's being safely delivered of a Princess; an Event, which cannot give more Satisfaction to your Majesty, in beholding the Increase of your Royal Family, than it doth Joy to your People, in lengthening out the Prospect of their Felicity to future Ages.

Your Majesty, and your Royal Father of glorious Memory, have been the only Instances in all our History, of two successive Reigns, where the People have had the Pleasure of seeing the Lineal Succession of the Crown secured to the third Generation; and We doubt not but our latest Posterity will be as happy under a Race of Kings sprung from your Majesty's Loins, as the City of Dublin has been, and continues to be under your Majesty's Government.

It is no small Addition to our Felicity to observe, that the whole Course of your Majesty's Reign has been no other than a Continuation of the Blessings derived down to Us from our great Deliverer King William III, of ever glorious Memory; and which were re-established by the seasonable Accession of your Majesty's Royal Father, at a Time when the Liberties of this City were attacked and endangered for the steady Adherence of the Citizens to the Constitution of their Country, and to the Settlement of the Crown on the only Protestant Branch that remained of the Royal Family.

As we can never too much admire your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in providing for the future Peace and Happiness of your People, by the timely Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, so no Choice could be more acceptable to your People than his illustrious Consort, of the House of Saxony. The Princes who are to spring from so amiable a Pair, will need no other Incitements to Virtue than by looking back to the Examples of their great Ancestors, where they will see on the one Hand Crowns despis'd for the Sake of Conscience, and on the other ample Dominions sacrificed to the Cause of Liberty; they will likewise see those Crowns replaced by Providence with more illustrious Diadems, and the Loss of those Dominions rewarded with Regal Power over a brave, free, and faithful People; this will naturally excite in them not only a Love for these Realms, where the unalienable Rights of Conscience are so tenderly preserved, and where Liberty is now at length so happily established, but also a just Value for a People who have done, and suffered greatly in the glorious Cause of both.

We can easily preface the happy Lot of our Posterity, who are to Obey a Series of Princes that will be formed upon such Models of Virtue, and have been exemplified afresh in your Majesty and your Royal Consort; for it is indeed no other than what we feel and enjoy ourselves under your Majesty's wife and gentle Government.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereto Affixed, this 29th Day of August, 1737.

Dublin, Sept. 27. We hear from Dingle in the County of Kerry, that not long since was married in that Neighbourhood a Couple, whose Age, together with the Mare they rode on, amounted to 200; 'tis added, that when the Bride was getting off her Knees, she was obliged to be assisted by two Persons.

On Tuesday and Wednesday last there was a Hearing before his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council, on a Double Return of Thomas Staunton and Dominick Bourke, Esq; for Mayor of the Town of Galway; and on a full Hearing, Dominick Bourke, Esq; was declared duly elected.

On Friday Night six Ruffians, two of them with black Crape on their Faces, broke into the House of Mrs. Daly, a Gardener's Widow, who lives on the Road to Beggar's Bush, knocked down a Man who looks after her Garden, and tied him Neck and Heels; then went to her and her Child in Bed, and tied them also, calling her by her Name, and bidding her not be frightned, for they would do her no Harm; after which they robbed her of what Money she had in the House, and the Quilt of her Bed, then went off undiscovered.

On Saturday last the Right Hon. Edward Walpole, Esq; Secretary to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, arrived here from Holyhead on board His Majesty's Yacht.

The same Day a Pickpocket was detected stealing a Handkerchief from a Person on the Blind Quay, and was immediately encircled by the Mob, who tore off his Cloaths, and then drubbed him most unmercifully; and there being a Painter present, with his Brushes and Paint, he took Compassion on him, and daubed him over to hide his Nakedness.

The same Evening as 3 Coaches were going with a Corpse to Drumnah, to bury it there, 2 of them were thriving near Kilmanham Turnpike who should get first, whereby a Country Carman was thrown down, and one of the Coaches ran over his Head, and split his Skull, so that his Brains came out, and the Coachman was lodged in Newgate.

On Sunday Edward Riggs, Esq; one of the Hon. Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue in this Kingdom, failed for Chester on board his Majesty's Yacht.

The Guards at Cork are still doubled on Account of the Tumultuous Mobs that continue there, to the Terror of that City.

We hear his Grace the Lord Lieutenant went Yesterday to Leixlip, in Order to stand Godfather to the new-born Son of the Right Hon. William Connolly, Esq;

This Day our University is to wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with an Address to his Majesty, to congratulate his Majesty on the Birth of the Princess AUGUSTA.

To-morrow his Grace the Lord Lieutenant is to review in the Park the Regiment of Horse commanded by the Lord Cathcart, and the 3 Regiments of Foot that are quarter'd in our Barracks.

We hear from Waterford, that two Mines are lately discover'd in that Neighbourhood, the one of Copper, the other of Lead, the latter of which produceth a deal of Silver.

Last Friday the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire dined with the Lord Viscount Montjoy, and next Day with the Lord Molesworth.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Exon, Sept. 30. The Report of a Rising of the Cornish Tinnars appears (as we hear) to be too true, occasioned by the great Exportation of Wheat; for by Accounts from Padstow, Pendennis, and other Market Towns in that Neighbourhood, the Demand for Corn has been so large, that in many of the above Places 4 Bushels of Wheat were not to be seen or purchased in Publick on many Market Days; upon which they rose in great Numbers, broke open several Granaries, carried off what they could find, not out of a View (as they said) of robbing their Neighbours, hours, but only to supply the common Necessities of Life, and prevent their Families from Starving, and for which (as we are informed) they were ready, and offer'd, to pay the current Market Price. This News coming to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment quarter'd here, a Detachment of 40 or 50 Men were sent thither on Tuesday, and Yesterday the Remainder of the Regiment followed, but are to halt at Ockhampton till Orders from the Secretary of War, which were expected this Day.

CONDITIONS.

I. What is at present proposed to be published of this Work is the Books of the four Evangelists, which will consist of Ten Volumes in Quarto, containing, according to the best Computation, about 400 Pages each; to be printed on a good Paper and in a fair Character.

II. The Price of the Two Volumes to the Subscribers will be Sixteen Shillings (few'd in blue Paper) of which Half will be paid down at the Time of subscribing, the Remainder at the delivery of the Second Volume; and considering the Variety of the Characters which must be used, and the Labour with which the Work must be corrected, it is hoped it will be thought no unreasonable demand for a Book of such Size and Form.

III. If necessary Encouragement be given to the Work, the Work shall be put into the Press in a few Weeks, and wrought off with as much Dispatch as may consist with the Author's Purpose of correcting it himself.

IV. The Subscribers Names will be printed, unless forbid.

V. Those who subscribe for Six, will, as usual, have a Seventh allowed.

VI. If any are printed more than are subscribed for, the Author will keep them in his own Hands, and take all possible Care that they shall never be sold below the Subscription Price.

Proposals are deliver'd gratis, and Subscriptions taken by the Author at Northampton; and for his Reside at Richard Hett, at the Bible and Crown in the Poultry, Middle Dicey and Fowler, at Northampton; Mr. Tozer, Jew of Exeter; and by the Booksellers of Great Britain and Ireland.

These are to Certify whom it may concern,
THAT the Two Medicines for external Use, which have been sold with so much Success for the Good of Mankind near Thirty Years last past, are the Cure of

All Sorts of RUTTURES, BURSTEN, or BROKEN BELLIES.

are removed from the Minorities, where they have been sold for the Author, so long, and are now sold only at Mr. Sawbridge's Toyshop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Broad-street, Bury in the Poultry, at 5 s. the Parcel, sealed up with printed Directions given with them.

These two Remedies need no other Recommendation, than themselves will manifest in two or three Days using, having by their admirable and even astonishing Success, gained the Reputation they so justly deserve, both in City and Country, after wearing Trusses for many Years to no Purpose.

For by the Blessing of God, they make a perfect Cure either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a small Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient, one Parcel is generally sufficient for a complete Cure, especially on a young Person.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occasioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all such unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Trusses.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cured Persons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, to grown Persons of 60 Years or upwards; but for the hindrance of People being utterly averse to let it be known that they ever had such an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sawbridge can satisfy any reasonable Inquirer of the Validity of what is here said, tho' he has not had such large Knowledge, as reason of the short Time he has sold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are now, for good Reasons, removed.

No Letters received except Post paid.
